

3. Websites

www.accessola.com/osla/bethechange/home.html Ontario School Library Association- 'Be the Change'

- series of lessons, and comprehensive resource list built around the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
- aimed at promoting active global citizenship
- one HIV/AIDS related Secondary lesson

www.acdi-cida.gc.ca/youthzone.htm

- comprehensive classroom resource

www.africafiles.org/afroprobe/index.asp

There are some excellent resources for schools on this website.

www.aidslaw.ca

- legal, ethical and human rights issues publication

www.avert.org based in the U.K.

- good discussion of stigmas associated with HIV/AIDS education
- good source of HIV/AIDS information: the virus, impact, treatment, pandemic in Africa

www.bp208.ca

- background information but also writing/art contest for 14-18 year olds

www.canada.amref.org – African Medical and Research Foundation

- 'What You Can Do' section, under 'Learn', HIV/AIDS lesson plans for grade 9-12

www.commonthreads.ca Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Association- International Solidarity program.

- lesson plans are in accordance with Ontario Ministry Curriculum guidelines, include videos and assessments.
- excellent resource

www.cpar Canadian Physicians for Aid and Relief

- access to educational resources for teachers and students
- lessons are linked directly to Alberta, Manitoba, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Ontario Ministry Secondary curriculum
- with 'Tools for Learning', each lesson comes with power point presentation, case studies and assessment. Excellent

www.freethechildren.com Free the Children
-variety of interesting and innovative resources
-elementary and secondary curriculum resources, book a speaker, Global Voices- Toronto Star, video resources
-Global Voices series is topical, informative, easy to use in the classroom
-great resource and respectful in its examination

www.grandmotherscampaign.org

www.portal.unesco.org/education - Associated Schools Project Network (ASPnet)
-section on AIDS and HIV/AIDS prevention

www.stephenlewisfoundation.org
-the speeches by Stephen Lewis

www.unaids.org
-global perspective articles related to AIDS education

www.worldvision.ca World Vision-Breaking the Silence-HIV/AIDS
- resource of four workshops plus downloadable photo essay. Go to education and click on teacher resource
-an accompanying video HIV/AIDS in Tanzania is available through the Learning Resource Centre

www.phac-aspc.gc.ca
-information on disease, statistics, fact sheets